Good morning and welcome to services. We are so glad you are here! We are less than one month away from our trip to L2L convention and we have so many young people working hard on projects. Today we will be meeting at 2:00 to work on puppets, including costuming and getting our set design competed. We will plan to work until just before evening worship.

We have wrapped up our study of the book of Genesis on Wednesday nights and have started a study on "Peter in Acts", If you are not currently attending Bible classes, we hope you will consider attending. It's wonderful to see that spiritual growth that occurs when we study God's word together. DOUG

Damage From Insignificant Things

The story is told of a giant tree in Colorado, which fell to the ground after having stood majestically on a hill for over 400 years. A mere sapling when Columbus landed in San Salvador over the centuries it had been struck by lightning 14 times, braved great wind storms, and even defied an earthquake. In the end, however, it was killed by some little beetles. Boring under the bark, they chewed away its mighty fibers until one day that lordly king of the forest came thundering down. So, too, apparently insignificant things often make substantial inroads into our spiritual lives, and if left unchecked may cause our downfall. The idle word spoken, the prayer time omitted, and the occasional fleshly pleasure indulgences — these things "spoil" the vineyard much more than we realize. If Satan gets an entering wedge on inconsistency, the leverage he then exerts is greatly increased. May God help us to be careful of those things we consider small and insignificant. There is often a great danger in little things. DAN

From Dan's desk:

It is great to have all of you in Bible Class and worship this morning. For those visiting with us, it is especially good to have you worship with us. Your presence is indicative of your interest in matters spiritual. Last Sunday evening RODNEY COVINGTON responded to the invitation asking for the prayers of the church here. We commend him upon this decision. Spring is upon us. Everything is in bloom including the Dogwoods. Many will be coming to Palestine and to visit our congregation. Please make that special effort to see and greet them. We want them to feel welcome. Today is the time for the annual Spring Luncheon. We hope you will stay. There is always plenty of food, even if you did not bring anything. Thanks again to Jill and Jeanette for coordinating this meal. It is always a nice time when brethren can share in the meal together. So many good things are happening among us and we are thankful to our Father for His abounding love and care for His children. We hope all of you will make that special effort to attend worship this evening. We have some driving to worship with us from over 60 miles away on Sunday morning and evening as well. There are those who really hunger and thirst for the Holy scriptures. The service starts at 6 P.M. and we are out before it is dark.

“JUST AS I AM”

When poet Charlotte Elliott (1789-1871) was 46 years old, and an invalid, an elderly man approached her at a dinner party and asked if she was a Christian. She considered him rude and unkind, and that his question was inappropriate. After the man walked away, Charlotte could not get his question out of her mind so she went to find the man, and to ask how to become a Christian. The gentleman expressed to her that she could come to Christ just as she was, with her sins and that she would receive forgiveness by her faith and obedience to Christ. She did in fact become a Christian and soon thereafter she wrote the beautiful hymn that has encouraged so many to obey Christ, “Just As I Am” as a testimony to her newfound faith, and as a tribute to the man who had told her that she could come to Christ, 'just as she was'. Over the remainder of her life, Charlotte wrote 150 hymns. SELECTED
