Good morning and welcome to services! We are so glad you are here. There is so much going on as we prepare for L2L convention and it's exciting to see it all coming along. Thanks to everyone who has been in attendance for puppet practices, scrapbook workdays, Bible Bowl testing, and to those working at home on individual projects. We have such an amazing group of young people and parents here at Crockett Road! Be on the lookout for the April calendar. It will definitely be L2L heavy, but will also include a parent meeting to plan for our youth group summer. Hope everyone has a great week! DOUG

"If you keep My commandments, you will abide in My love, just as I have kept My Father's commandments and abide in His love."

"WHAT GOD DESIRES MOST OF ALL"

If there is one passage that sums up the glorious scheme of redemption it would be Luke 5:32 where Jesus said, "I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance." What God desires most is for mankind to be saved (1 Tim. 2:3-4). With each passing day God demonstrates His patience and "longsuffering to us-ward." What more could He do to prove that He is "not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance" (2 Pet. 3:9)? While some picture God as a mean, tyrant judge who is eager to punish, the Bible teaches differently. "As I live, saith the Lord GOD, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked; but that the wicked turn from his way and live: turn ye, turn ye from your evil ways; for why will ye die, O house of Israel?" (Ezekiel 33:11). While it is true that, because of His holy and just nature, God must punish the wicked (Ps. 89:14, Nahum 1:3; 2 Thess. 1:7-9). It is also true that He takes no pleasure in doing so. Our Creator has declared that He would see us come to repentance as He has commanded (Acts 17:30). God is listening. He is waiting for His creation, which He made in His own image, to repent, "I hearkened and heard, but they spake not aright: no man repented him of his wickedness, saying, What have I done? Every one turned to his course, as the horse rusheth into the battle" (Jer. 8:6). One of saddest truths in the Scriptures is that many will refuse to repent and thus be eternally lost. Let each of us take heed to Jesus' warning, "Except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish" (Lk. 13:3). God still calls us to obey Him that we might go to heaven. Are you following Him? DAN

From Dan's desk:

The article below is thought provoking. Read it and consider it well. We are happy about ADDIE SCHATTLE being baptized last Monday. Addie is a sweet young girl and we have watched her grow up through the years. She is a junior at Neches School. We rejoice with her on this decision. See you tonight.

DON'T STAY AWAY FROM WORSHIP

1. Because you are poor. There is no admission charge.
2. Because it rains. You go to work in the rain.
3. Because it is hot. It's hot at your house, too.
4. Because it is cold. It is warm arid friendly inside.
5. Because no one invited you. People go to the movies all the time without being invited.
6. Because you don't like the preacher. He is human like you.
7. Because you are tired from your job. You would lose your job for staying home for the same reason.
8. Because there are hypocrites. You associate with them daily.
9. Because you have company. They will admire you if you bring them along.

RENEE' WHITLEY continues to go through tests.
RODNEY AND ROBIN COVINGTON are both having medical tests.
STEVE CAMP is doing better after going to E.R. last week.
SAM ELLIS is improving from tests and heart procedure in Tyler.

MONDAY NIGHT FOR THE MASTER

Tomorrow night at 6:15, we will again meet for our time of service to the Lord's church here. We will meet at 6:15 for our meal. We will work between 7 P.M. & 8 P.M.

RESPONSE BAPTIZED
ADDIE SCHATTLE
(Daughter of Gerri Peoples)

A woman was trying hard to get the ketchup out of the jar. During her struggle the phone rang so she asked her 4-year -old daughter to answer the phone. 'Mommy can't come to the phone to talk to you right now. She's hitting the bottle.'

"SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT"

When we complain of having to do the same thing over and over, let us remember that God does not send new trees, strange flowers, and different grasses every year. When the spring winds blow, they blow in the same way. In the same places the same dear blossoms lift up the same sweet faces, yet they never weary us. When it rains, it rains as it always has. Even so would the same tasks which fill our daily lives put on new meanings if we wrought them in the spirit of renewal from within., a spirit of growth and beauty.

Helen Keller

What's On Your Mind?

Since a person's character is shaped by their thoughts, we understand that to build Christian character we must apply Philippians 4:8 and learn to think on things that are true, honest, just, pure, lovely, of good report, virtuous and praiseworthy. True: God's ways are just and true (Revelation 15:3). We need to learn to meditate more upon the truth of God's word and allow it to be our guide for this life (Psalm 1:2; 119:105).
