

Teen News

Please continue to pray for our seniors. We will honor them today. We hope everyone will stay and enjoy this time with them. We are so thankful and proud of our youth at Crockett Rd. We have a lot of things coming up this summer. School will be out soon and many other activities will be taking place. We hope you will plan to be involved in all of these. Lamp Camp is one of those programs and we will tell you more about that soon. We love you all and continue to pray for you here at the end of the school year. DOUG

John 3:16 "For God so loved the world that he gave His only son...."

WELCOME VISITORS

A big hearty welcome to those visiting today. Allow us to meet and greet you following the worship service this morning. At the end of the service today you will be given a gift bag from our congregation. "It is a small gift, but it comes from big hearts."

One Places Membership and One Baptized
Graduating Seniors to be honored today.
Luncheon follows Worship today

From Dan's desk:

Last Sunday, ROSALEE CARWELL asked to place membership with the congregation here at Crockett Rd. She used to attend here several years ago and we are happy that she made this decision to come back home. Last Tuesday afternoon, PAM PARKER was baptized for the remission of sins. Pam felt there were reason why she should be re-immersed and she made this decision. We rejoice with her on her commitment to Christ. We are so happy for our graduating seniors here at the church. We will give them special recognition following g the worship this morning. They are listed elsewhere in the bulletin. We are so encouraged and appreciative of these young people and their accomplishments through the years. We will have a luncheon following the morning service and we hope that you will stay for the meal. There will be plenty of food and you will enjoy this event. Our prayers continue for our youth. Last Sunday evening we honored the youth who were involved in the Lads To Leaders program. They all did a great job and it was great seeing them receiving their awards. They have really worked har along with Doug and Alison and parents. We are so grateful for them all and how they represent the Body of Christ at this place. They are truly great examples of Christianity. Thanks for coming this morning and we hope to see you tonight at 6 P.M. DAN

THE FINAL EXAM QUESTION?
DO YOU REALLY LOVE GOD ENOUGH
TO OBEY HIM?

“Be Calm Inside”

All individuals who have learned to be content in what ever circumstances he finds himself, are those who knows how to live at peace with themselves (Phil. 4:10-11). Such a person is not upset because he does not win every contest. Rather, he finds satisfaction in playing the game simply for the joy of playing, not focusing on victory alone. Such a person has recognized his sense of godly values so that the fulfillment of his desires brings inner satisfaction and peace of mind rather than unrest and remorse (1 Timothy 6:6; cf. 1 Timothy 4:7-8). True peace is as often realized in resisting passions and in satisfying them (Colossians 3:1-15). The danger lies not so much in what we want, as in wanting something simply to satisfy an unworthy desire (James 4:1-4; Psalm 66:18). The individual who is content with himself knows how to be quiet within. Let's think about it!
