

Teen News

Good morning and welcome to services! School is out for most of you and we are excited for a summer full of fellowship and spiritual growth. We had a blast ushering in the summer season with a pool party and grilling last night. This Friday is the highly anticipated lock-in. Drop off is at 7pm on Friday and pick up is at 7am on Saturday. We will have a great time! Our group will be attending a Rangers game on July 23, but we need to purchase tickets in advance to ensure we are seated together. Tickets are $25 and the deadline to sign up is June 2nd. There may be some extra tickets available after that date, but we can not guarantee it. There is a sign up sheet on the youth board or you can text Alison or me. Hope everyone has a great week!

“God Loves His Offspring”

A story in National Geographic several years ago gives us a beautiful and penetrating picture of God’s protective wings covering His children. After a forest fire in Yellowstone National Park, forest rangers began their trek up a mountain to assess the inferno’s damage. One ranger found a bird literally petrified in ashes, perched statuesquely on the ground at the base of a tree. Somewhat sickened by the eerie sight, the ranger reached out to knock the bird over with a stick. As he gently struck it, three tiny chicks scurried from under their dead mother’s wings. The loving mother, keenly aware of impending disaster, had carried her offspring to the base of the tree and had gathered them under her wings, instinctively knowing that the toxic smoke would rise. She could have flown to safety, but she refused to abandon her babies. When the blaze reached her, the heat had scorched her small body, but the mother had remained steadfast because she had been willing to die, those under the cover of her wings had lived. The Psalmist beautifully illustrates God’s protective love and care for each of us in Psalm 91:4 (NIV) when he says, “He will cover you with His feathers, and under His wings you will find refuge”. As His children, let’s remember the One who truly loves us (Romans 5:5-10), and then be different from the masses of the world because of that love (Romans 12:1-2; 2 Corinthians 6:14-18). DAN best in any situation.

Seniors were honored.

From Dan's desk:

The Senior presentations and Luncheon was truly memorable. We thank all those who were involved in any way. Our seniors were blessed. We continue to pray for them. We live in a world that is so selfish unforgiving and care very little about God and spiritual matters. As Christians we have been forgiven by our Lord. I am glad that those in our congregation are forgiving. Forgiveness is a thing we too often are unwilling to offer to those who sin. When one acknowledges his or her sin and repents of their transgressions God forgives us and removes the stain and the consequences of it. Sometimes forgiveness is something that is hard for us to accept from God and others because we often feel unworthy of it. I am grateful that forgiveness is full & complete. Eph. 4:32. We here at Crockett Rd. must always have a heart ready to forgive when one acknowledges their sin. Too many only report their sin, instead of repenting of it. We must soften our hearts in order to accomplish the Will of God. We must follow the process of Matthew 18:15-17. Hope to see you at the evening service at 6 P.M.

God's Way Always Works Best.

CHURCH WEBSITE

We have had numerous visitors at our Internet website. Dwight Franklin puts the sermons on the web each week. Each week we have several people go to our website. That is great. A big thank you to Dwight for his efforts to help broaden our evangelistic outreach.

A BIG THANK YOU to those who organized the luncheon last week: Jill & Steve Camp, Brandon Franklin, Cathy Young, Mackie Cox, Bettie Furman We all enjoyed the meal and fellowship. It was great and they all did a wonderful job.

MONDAY NIGHT FOR THE MASTER
Monday Night For The Master was held earlier in the month and now we are suspending this program until the month of September.

WORTHY OF RESPECT AND HONOR

In Luke 18:2 a man is described as neither reverencing God nor respecting man. Does that connection have a logical ring to it? A healthy fear of God surely would promote a sense of respect and honor for lesser but worthy objects. Things were different when I was a boy. We respected parents, teachers, policemen, older people, other people's property, institutions, grandparents, customs, other people's space, women if you were a male, other's advice, Bible class teachers and preachers, and a host of other people and things. People did not have to "earn" your respect. That was woven into the very fabric of society. I cringe in our day to see how little respect is shown anyone or anything. The "common courtesies" of an earlier time are certainly not common today. That built in polite, gracious behavior of yesterday has been abandoned for a crude, rude, thoughtless, self-centered insistence on "me first." This lack of respect seems to be a big issue in America and in our world. Let's respect others and teach our children to do the same.
