

Good morning and welcome to services! Thank you to all who joined us on Tuesday night for dinner at Mazzio's and a service project for some of our local first responders. We are so proud of the way our young people let their lights shine. We are looking forward to hosting the first Summer Youth Series of 2021 this Tuesday here at Crockett Road. It will be such a wonderful time of worship and fellowship and we are so grateful to our members who are making cookies for the event. We hope you will check the youth board for upcoming events. We have a sign up sheet on the clipboard for our upcoming mission trip to Central Texas Children's Home for anyone planning on going. DOUG

The steadfast love of the Lord never ceases; his mercies never come to an end;

Lamentations 3:22 ESV

My Dad

He couldn't speak before a crowd
He couldn't teach a class
But when he came to Sunday School
He brought the folks in mass.

He couldn't sing to save his life,
In public couldn't pray;
But always his jalopy was just
Crammed on each Lord's day.

And although he couldn't sing,
Nor teach nor lead in prayer.
He listened well, he had a smile,
And he was always there.

ARE YOU RESILIENT?

How many resilient people do you know who have come back after defeat, have risen above inhibiting debilitating handicaps to become great?

- 1. Insight – wisdom and Understanding.
- 2. Independence.
- 3. Relationships – functioning As part of a group.
- 4. Initiative - self-starting.
- 5. Creativity.
- 6. Humor.
- 7. Morality.

I used to think resilience meant ability to cope, patience to keep on and not give up, the ability to function even if parts of the system were dysfunctional or inadequate. It is all those things and more, by extension. The dictionary says it is elasticity: ability to be stretched out of shape and then return to proper shape. Even Christians stumble and fall at times. But the same obedient penitent faith that straightened them out in the first place can put them back in shape and keep them there. God has given us all the spiritual resources we need to get in shape and stay in shape – to survive, conquer, and overcome everything. Adapted

“Happy Father’s Day”
to all dads
In our congregation

From Dan's desk:

Thank each of you for coming today to participate in our worship services to our loving Father in Heaven. Being an earthly father is one of the most important responsibilities placed on mankind. Men were first created and thereby rests an awesome challenge to lead our mates and children in the way that is right. Thank God for those who do. Our meeting near Gilmer was great. The attendance at the meeting continued to climb each night. The brethren there are a group of loving Christians dedicated to doing God’s bidding and I am so grateful to Perry Cowan who works with this congregation. Perry and I have been friends for a long time and it is always nice to work with him each year in numerous efforts to spread the gospel including the Give Me The Bible Program. My thanks again to Ben for preaching in my absence. He always does a great job and I heard many favorable comments. The Summer is upon us officially this weekend and the hot summertime is often tough. Do you remember back when we were experiencing the frigid 0 temperatures and you wanted it to be warmer, well it has arrived. Ha! The youth will be hosting the Annual Youth Gathering in the Summer Youth Program on Tuesday night. We encourage you to have your young people present. This is a way for our youth to be involved with young people from the East Texas area. We hope to see each of you at the evening worship service tonight. It is so good to have so many back with us now that the pandemic is lessening.

“MAY I ASK WHO YOU ARE?”

A big, burly man visited the preacher’s home and asked to see the minister’s wife, a woman well known for her charitable impulses. "Madam," he said in a broken voice, "I wish to draw your attention to the terrible plight of a poor family in this district. The father is dead, the mother is too ill to work, and the nine children are starving. They are about to be turned into the cold, empty streets unless someone pays their rent, which amounts to $400." "How terrible!" exclaimed the preacher's wife. "May I ask who you are?" The sympathetic visitor applied his handkerchief to his eyes. "I'm the landlord," he sobbed.

HAPPY FATHER’S DAY

Father’s Day is here. We honor fathers today and every day of life. They play a very important and basic role in life, in all society. My very wise grandmother used to say, “Anyone can have a child, but it takes a special man to be a father.” I wholeheartedly agree. Being a father is much more than performing a biological function. It is about loving and caring, guiding and sharing. A father is the head of his family. He does this, not out of insecurity, selfishness or pride, but out of the desire to be an obedient servant to God. (Ephesians 5:22) A father offers wise council so that he may lead his children to a path of righteousness. He is slow to anger, yet demands respect. “For I know him, that he will command his children and his household after him, and they shall keep the way of the Lord, to do justice and judgment; ...” Ephesians 6:1-3 (See also Genesis 18:19) A father is strong, reliable and confident. But, a father is also tender, loving and understanding. “Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: ...” Matt. 7:12 (See also Psalms 103:13) A father is a good provider. As long as he is capable, he is willing to labor hard to provide shelter for his family, and food on the table ... “if any would not work neither should he eat”(II Thessalonians 3:10) A father recognizes the importance of making time for those he loves. Little league baseball and dance recitals seem to be his favorite past time. “Train up a child in the way he should go; and when he is old, he will not depart from it.” (Proverbs 22:6)

A father is not judged by how much he earns or how many material goods he provides. What does matter to his children is how well he is being a father.
