

Teen News

Good morning and welcome to services! The last week has turned out differently than we planned, but our family appreciates all of your prayers, calls, cards and food. Alison and Lily are feeling much better after testing positive for COVID and are glad to be over it! We are so sorry that COVID kept us from going to camp, but we are glad we didn't spread the virus there. We are now easing back into our summer calendar and are so excited to head to Whitehouse this week for Summer Youth Series! This week's topic in our Inside Out series is "Trust" and we look forward a wonderful lesson, singing and fellowship. We will meet at the building at 5:15 to head that way. Have a great week! DOUG

"Behold, God is my helper; the Lord is the upholder of my life."

Psalm 54:4 ESV

Walking Out

"I hope you didn't take it personally, Preacher," an embarrassed woman said after a church service, "when my husband walked out during your sermon."
"I did find it rather disconcerting," the preacher replied.
"It's not a reflection on you, sir," insisted the church goer.
"Ralph has been walking in his sleep ever since he was a child."

What's the difference between a hunter and a fisherman?
A hunter lies in wait. A fisherman waits and lies.

Only One Addiction

People are addicted to many things, alcohol, drugs (legal & illegal), nicotine, gambling, food, pornography, etc. All of these things can ruin your life. Look what Peter says, "promising them freedom while they themselves are slaves of corruption; for by what a man is overcome, by this he is enslaved." (2 Peter 2:19). So the goal of the Christian is not to be overcome or enslaved to anything. This is a principle that not only Peter taught, but the apostle Paul said, "...I will not be mastered by anything" (I Cor. 6:12b). But the big problem is that the alcoholic will not admit that alcohol controls him. We must continue to examine our own lives - that we have but one who has overcome us, only one who has enslaved us by His goodness - that is, Christ. May the love and goodness of Christ overcome you always, and happily I will be enslaved to Him who loves me so.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY AMERICA.
WATERMELON FOLLOWING THE EVE-NING SERVICE.
PLAN TO JOIN US.

From Dan's desk:

It appears that Covid 19 has raised its head again. We have had several in the city and a few in the church recently diagnosed with Covid. The trip to the youth Christian Camp at Harding University had to be cancelled because of illness. The young people will be going to Camp Read Oak Springs near Jasper, Texas next month. Please remember the Watermelon Supper tonight after services. We always have a great time and we hope you will want to join us for services and for watermelon. Tomorrow our nation will celebrate our independence. I am so grateful for the Supreme court having the courage to stand up and do what was right in God's sight. Think of all the countless lives that will be saved as a result of this decision regarding abortion. I am happy to see many people returning back to God. The future of our country is dependent on Godly mothers and fathers who guide their children in ways that are right and honorable. We are so glad you have joined us in worship this morning and if you are visiting with us, please stay for a few minutes and allow us to make you welcome. See you tonight. Continue to pray for our country and the leaders on America.

“Braving Storms”

The story is told of a giant tree in Colorado, which fell to the ground after having stood majestically on a hill for over 400 years. A mere sapling when Columbus landed in San Salvador over the centuries it had been struck by lightning 14 times, braved great wind storms, and even defied an earthquake. In the end, however, it was killed by some little beetles. Boring under the bark, they chewed away its mighty fibers until one day that lordly king of the forest came thundering down. So, too, apparently insignificant things often make substantial inroads into our spiritual lives, and if left unchecked may cause our downfall. The idle word spoken, the prayer time omitted, and the occasional fleshly pleasure indulgences — these things “spoil” the vineyard much more than we realize. If Satan gets an entering wedge on inconsistency, the leverage he then has is unstoppable.
