

Good morning and welcome to services! We had a great time last Sunday evening at our pumpkin carving devotional! We hope everyone enjoyed the time together and will remember the ways we are just like a pumpkin and let your light shine through your big smile. We have a busy week ahead starting with Monday Night for the Master tomorrow night at 6:15. Hope you can be there to help with the work that will be done here at the building. This Wednesday we will be meeting at Tru-Care at 5:30 for singing and visiting on the porch before we head to the building for Bible class. Hope to see you there! We are still unable to go inside and sing and visit as a group, but with the fall weather a porch visit should be great. Our youth group Halloween party is this Saturday, the 30th, from 6-9. There WILL be a costume contest so bring your best costume!!! We will also have a contest for spookiest dessert. Have a great week! DOUG

"Do not neglect to do good and to share what you have, for such sacrifices are pleasing to God." Heb. 13:16

Dear Heavenly Father,
So far, today, I've done all right. I haven't gossiped or lost my temper. I haven't been greedy, grumpy, nasty, or self centered. I'm really happy about that so far. But in a few minutes I'm going to be getting out of bed and then I'm going to need a lot of help. Thank you! Amen

TOMORROW NIGHT

“STAND BY YOUR PRINCIPLES”

You have to dare to stand for your principles when the world around you doesn't. It doesn't matter what is in the head. It's the heart that matters." It was Samuel who said: "for the Lord seeth not as a man seeth; for man looketh on the outward appearance, but the LORD looketh on the heart." (1 Samuel 16:7) God found that heart in a young boy by the name of David. When the soldiers in Israel's army saw Goliath, the Philistine, they fled and were very afraid. When David heard the words of Goliath, he said to the men of Israel: "who is this uncircumcised Philistine, that he should defy the armies of the living God?" David had a heart for God and faith in his God. It was David, a young man, who faced Goliath, the champion of the Philistines. Standing before the giant, David said: "Thou comes to me with a sword, but I come to thee in the name of the LORD of hosts, the God of the armies of Israel thou hast defied. This day will the LORD deliver thee into mine hand; and I will smite thee, and take thine head from thee . . . that all the earth may know that there is a God. 1 Samuel 17:45-46) David showed what was in his heart. In America, we need some young people who will stand up with convictions to challenge the Goliaths in our world.

From Dan's desk:

Thanks for joining us today in worship. It is always great to worship as a church family. The fellowship luncheon last Sunday was well attended. Thanks to Sandy & James Singleterry, Gayle Hamilton, Kathy Young, Charles McCullough, Renee and Mike Whitley for all helping with the luncheon and the clean-up. It was great. The food was delicious and we appreciate all who stayed. On Sunday night, ROBIN LINDSAY responded to the invitation to confess Christ and be baptized for the remission of sins. Audrey and I have been studying with Robin and we are so glad that she has made this decision. We welcome here into our fellowship here at Crockett Rd. Her information is listed elsewhere in the bulletin this week. Please be reminded that tomorrow night Oct. 25th we will again have Monday Night For The Master. We will meet at 6:15 for the meal and work between 7 P.M. and 8 P.M. We can get a lot done when we work together. We hope that you will want to join us for the meal (Pizza and Salad) and the work session. We wanted to let you know that we are having Trunk & Treat next Sunday night following the worship service. Those who would like to provide candy for the kids are asked to come Sunday night put the candy in your trunk and open it for distribution to the kids. We hope you will want to participate. Please plan to be with us not only then, but on every Sunday night. The time change is coming up in about two weeks. Don't forget. See you tonight at 6 P.M. for the evening service. DAN

A minister who was very fond of pure, hot horseradish always kept a bottle of it on his dining room table. He offered some to a guest, who took a big spoonful. When the guest finally was able to speak, he gasped, "I've heard many ministers preach hellfire, but you are the first one I've met who passed out a sample of it."

"HOPE IN A BAD SOCIETY"

The Bible tells us that "as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin, and so death passed upon all men, for all have sinned." (Rom. 5:12) Jesus bore the curse of our sins upon Himself so you and I can be justified by His blood. This provided great hope for all of us. He defeated death when He arose from the tomb and ascended back to heaven where He is seated at the Father's right hand. Since He is alive, we have a great and glorious future ahead of us. The One who sat upon the throne said, "Behold, I make all things new." John Piper has said, "The one who is Alpha and Omega, God the Almighty, has pledged Himself to take away every pain and every threat of death and everything that makes you cry. All causes of depression and anxiety and guilt, and all hindrances to joy and wonder and childlike delight will vanish. And in their place will put a never-ending joy that will surpass the happiest vacation you ever had." In this world we are very acquainted with death, sorrow, and pain. There has been enough tears to fill an ocean, but someday "God shall wipe away all tears" from our eyes. Until that great day we must "seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God." We are to set our "affection on things above, not on things on the earth." (Col. 3:1-2) Paul wrote in 2 Corinthians 4:18, "While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen; for the things which are seen are temporal, but the things which are not seen are eternal." We must let the hope that we have in Christ serve as an anchor of the Soul both steadfast and sure. All is not hopeless. DAN
