Good morning everyone. I want to thank all of you for your prayers as my grandfather went through his heart surgery. He is doing well but would like to ask for your continued prayers as his recovery will be slow and no doubt painful. I also want thank Brandy and Jim for taking my place at the devo last Sunday while I was sick. I couldn't do this without their help. See you all tonight.

Am I Giving My Best?

I read that Queen. Mary used to go to Scotland every summer. She was so loved by the people that she went about the country without an escort. One afternoon she was walking with some children. Suddenly dark clouds came up. The queen stopped at a house and asked to borrow an umbrella. She said to the lady of the house, "I'll send it back to you tomorrow." The lady was reluctant to lend a good umbrella to a stranger, but remembered that she had an old one in the attic. One rib was broken and there were several holes in it, but she turned it over to the lady at the door with an apology. The next day there was another knock at the door. When she opened the door, a man in gold braid stood with a big envelope in hand. The queen sent me," he said, "and she asked me to thank you for the umbrella." For a moment the woman was stunned and then she burst into tears. She said, "Oh! What an opportunity I missed that I did that I did not give her my best!" The story is told of a rich man who wanted to help a poor carpenter and his family. He hired him to build a house and went away on a long journey. The carpenter said, "My boss is away, so I can use shoddy materials, cut down on supporting work, and no one but me will know." So he build a cheap and shoddy house. When the rich man returned, the carpenter said to him, "Here is your house all finished according to your instructions." "Good," said the rich man, "and here are the keys and the deed. It is yours. I am giving you this house." Over the years the carpenter grieved. In using cheap materials, he had only cheated himself. 2 Cor. 8:5 "They first gave themselves".

Join us for a wonderful day of fellowship and encouragement

2013 off to a great start. Give Me The Bible Confer- ence

From Dan's desk:

The first Sunday in the New Year got off to a good start. Even though we had a large number out with illnesses, we had two wonderful periods of fellowship together. If you were not here, the Elders and Deacons, presented plans for the New Year. The calendar of events will give you an idea of things planned for the year along with the budget that Henry Baker presented. We also passed out new Ministry update sheets, giving you an opportunity to be involved in one or more of some forty-one ministries that are available to those in the church here. Please complete and turn them back in as soon as possible. They will be given to the ministry leaders and we will involve you in those areas where you would like to work. We appreciate your confirmation and support of our leadership. The Elders and Deacons continue to make every effort to lead the Church into the New Year with enthusiasm and a desire to follow the truths contained in God's Word. Let's all talk up the church. Pessimism and Negativism has an ill effect. Let's all be busy, zealous unto good works. I am excited about the "Give Me The Bible" annual conference and luncheon. Our speakers will do a great job and you will be encouraged if you attend on this coming Saturday morning at 9 A.M. The luncheon is being catered and the cost is $7.00. We need for you to sign the list in the foyer and give your money for the meal to Lorelee by Weds. night if you are planning to be with us. Thanks for coming this morning. See you tonight.

Faithfulness

It may be true that every man has his price, but too many people seem to be holding bargain sales."

Parents need to fill a child's self-esteem so high that the rest of the world can't poke enough holes in it to drain it dry.

Most people want to serve God, but only in an advisory position.

Don't wait for six strong men to take you to church.

Worry is the darkroom in which negatives can develop.
