WHY DO YOU WORRY?

Everyone knows the signs: sleepless nights, sick stomachs, mental breakdowns, deep depression, hiding away, high blood pressure. turning to drugs and alcohol, etc... These are indicators an individual has fallen victim to his own worry.

Worry eats people alive, and Christians are not immune. It touches the lives of virtually every family and affects millions of people every single day, touching all walks of life in myriad circumstances: The educated worry because of everything they know, while the uneducated worry because they know so little. The rich worry because they have so much, while the poor worry because they have so little. The old worry because they aren't young, but the young worry because they aren't older.

Worry takes so much time for so many folks, interfering with everyday action, sometimes even making people physically ill. It remains, however, one of those silent problems few seem to want to talk about. This is not just a psychological issue, though, and there may be many who would be surprised to learn that worry is prohibited by God (Matthew 6:25-34). "Therefore I say to you, do not worry about your life ..." (Matthew 6:25).

The unfortunate fact remains that many Christians do not consult the word of God for their daily problems, failing to realize that anything can be properly addressed using the wisdom and knowledge from. Yet, these same people will consult doctors, read worldly books, listen to what Oprah or Dr. Phil has to say, etc. We need to address worry from a biblical standpoint, realizing it as a problem and habit that can cause us to be lost eternally. SELECTED

One Baptized Into Christ Welcome Dogwood Trails Visitors

From Dan's desk:

We rejoice with Margaret Richardson a resident at the Tru-Care Assisted Living facility. She was baptized last week after our study together. We are happy for her upon this decision. She was sprinkled when she was a young baby, and has come to learn the truth about baptism and wanted to obey the Gospel of our Saviour and live for Him. We commend her for taking this step and making this decision even though it was late in life for her. I am in Abilene today. I will be speaking for the Clyde Church of Christ and will return home this afternoon. Thanks to Ron Brown for speaking for me this morning and the Deacons and Ben for speaking at the evening service tonight. It was good to have Dogwood Trails visitors in our midst last Sunday. No doubt the same will be the case today. If you are visiting with us this morning, we are glad that you have come. We hope you will come again soon. The Dogwoods are nearing full bloom and the azalea's will be right behind them. Please remember Monday Night For The Master tomorrow night. Jane Grumbles and others will make sure the meal is ready by 6:15 P.M. (Frito chili pie) and we will begin working at 7 P.M. and will work till 8 P.M. We always appreciate all those who come to help. Much good results from our combined efforts. Thanks also to those who turned in recipes for the cookbook. We have a lot of great cooks in the church here and you will want to get a copy. We will make them available as soon as they are complete. See you Wednesday night.

Forget the Past

Many spend their lives in past days. Some can't live today because of the greatness of yesterday, while others can't make it through today because of the problems and sins of days gone by. And while there is nothing wrong with fond memories or nostalgia, and certainly much can be learned from past mistakes, the Bible teaches against living in the past, regardless of the way we remember it. Paul writes, "Brethren, I do not count myself to have apprehended; but one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind and reaching forward to those things which are ahead, I press toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus" (Philippians 3:13-14). In this passage, we are instructed to forget the past and look toward the goal, ahead to our goal of eternal life, not dwelling on those things gone by. How much better we would be if we took this advice and pressed forward? Instead, we offer excuses, saying we can't clear our minds of the past. We must be leery of such a line of thinking, though. The words of Philippians 3 are not suggestions, but commands of God, and we must forget what is past and move forward in Him. Imagine if the great Apostle Paul had dwelled on and worried about his past -- what a waste it would have been -- and his was a past full of horrible sin, much of which you and I have had no part. "Although I was formerly a blasphemer, a persecutor, and an insolent man; but I obtained mercy because I did it ignorantly in unbelief" (I Timothy 1:13). So, from yesterday we must learn from mistakes, we give thanks for our blessings, and then turn our attention to today. SELECTED
