

Teen News

I really appreciate all of your comments from last Sunday. Thanks for being so encouraging. This is a great congregation and I'm blessed to be here with you all. School is about to be over for the year and I know that both the teachers and students are ready. Where has this year gone? Thanks to those who came to class this morning. If you don't attend Sunday School we hope you will consider doing so. Sunday School improves your Bible knowledge. When you know and understand God's Word for yourself, you are more likely to obey the Lord. The Bible knowledge gained in Sunday School also helps you become more proficient in using God's Word. Most importantly, spiritual growth often occurs best in the context of small group Bible study. If you want a stronger faith, you have to feed it. See you all tonight!

From Dan's desk:

Our meeting in Jasper went well. It was a great week in many respects. I came back on Monday morning to conduct the memorial service for Lela Holder, former member. Lela and Bill along with son Blaine had been faithful members at Crockett Rd. for many years. Blaine now resides at a nursing home in Tyler. My thanks to Ben and Hershel Bearden for speaking while I was away in the meeting. We appreciate the work that Hershel in doing in India. Many souls are being saved as a result of his efforts and the efforts of others who continue to preach the Gospel of Christ. My thanks to Ben for teaching my Bible class on Sunday morning and to Kyle Lock for teaching the chapel class on Wednesday night. They always do a good job. We want to remind each of you about the Monday Night For The Master program that will take place tomorrow night. So much can be accomplished when God's people work together to get things done. We will have Pizza and Salad and if you can provide a dessert we would be so appreciative. We were happy to hear that TYLER and HOLLIE PALK made the decision to place membership with us. They have been attending for some time now. We are also happy about the baptism of MARLENE FREEMAN. I studied with her recently and following our study, she was baptized into Christ. She and her husband, BRETT will be attending services here. We welcome them to Crockett Rd. So many good things continue to happen. The church continues to grow in number and spirit. The month of April is almost gone and the month of May is arriving this week. I hope and trust that each on us will continue to be more involved in the work of God's kingdom at this place. See you tonight at 6 P.M. DAN

WELCOME VISITORS

A big hearty welcome to those visiting today. Allow us to meet and greet you following the worship service this morning. At the end of the service today you will be given a gift bag from our congregation. "It is a small gift, but it comes from big hearts." Thanks again

THEIR HEARTS WERE WRONG

The one thing Ananias and Sapphira coveted more than money was the praise of men. Acts chapter 5. They were even willing to give up a little money and take on a form of religion to get it. Barnabas sold a piece of land, they imitated; Barnabas brought the price of the land, they imitated; Barnabas laid the price of his land down at the apostles feet, they imitated; Barnabas desired his money be distributed among the poor saints, they imitated. The deceit of Ananias and Sapphira outwardly toward the brethren was evil. But their crime was in their heart against God. The lesson is simple. God will receive nothing less than complete surrender to him. Submit wholly to Christ through faith and cease deceiving your own heart. God will not be mocked. People do what they want to do. They do what they do freely without being forced to do so. People were not forced to crucify Christ. Pilate was said to have, "Delivered Jesus to their will." While they were acting freely and uncoerced, they were doing neither more nor less than "Whatsoever Thy hand and Thy counsel determined before to be done." Men do precisely what they want, and God exercises absolute sovereignty over men's but we make choices that are often not in harmony with God's Will. Their hearts were wrong. IS YOURS? DAN
