

Teen News

I hope you all had a good week! Thanks to Mr. & Mrs. Matlock for taking the youth group to Ci Ci's pizza last Sunday. We had a great time! I want to tell everyone how much I appreciate working with this youth group, they are fun to work with. I really enjoy each one of them. We are growing and getting to know each other better every week. Remember tonight after the worship service we will have ice cream in the activity building. Everyone is invited to attend!!!

SUMMER SCHEDULE

Summer is rapidly approaching. With so many activities going in the Summer months, people often have a tendency to stay away from the times of Worship. Worship is an opportunity for God's People to unite in times of fellowship and a study of God's Word. We hope that each of you will want to be present whenever the church meets for worship and fellowship. Don't make the mistake of staying away from God's House with a busy schedule. We should always remember to put the Kingdom of God first in all areas of our lives. We should all encourage one another to make Bible class and Worship priority.

So Close...Almost...But Dead

Robert Woods was a 27 year-old Dallas police officer. He died on November 28, 1976 after being shot five times with a pistol. The man convicted of the crime was Randall Dale Adams. He spent 12 years in prison, but his conviction was overturned as a result of the movie entitled The Thin Blue Line (a name used to describe the police). The crime remains unsolved. Woods had pulled a vehicle over for driving with no headlights. As he approached the car the driver shot him five times. The ironic and tragic thing was that Wood's wife had bought him a bullet-proof vest and was going to give it to him for Christmas, less than a month away. Officials said, if he had been wearing the vest, the .22 bullets would most likely not have taken his life. So close...almost...but dead! The warning found in James 4:13-17 needs heeding as much today as when Officer Woods was killed and even as much as when James wrote it... 'you who say, 'Today or tomorrow we will go to this city, spend a year there, carry on business and make money,' you do not even know what will happen tomorrow. What is your life? You are a mist that appears for a little while and then vanishes; ...anyone who knows the good he ought to do and doesn't do it, sins.'

Is there someone you need to visit? A call you need to make or a letter you intend to write? Is there sin you need forgiven of? Are you planning someday to obey the gospel? Are you waiting to get everything in order before you come back? Don't be one of those who almost did it...but put off and found out it was too late!

Ice Cream Supper tonight. New Church Ledger Directory

From Dan's desk:

Thanks to all of you who attended the Church fellowship luncheon last Sunday in honor of CHASSITY CHAMBLESS. Chassity will be graduating from Elkhart High School soon. We are happy for her. Last Sunday RENEE WHITLEY responded to the invitation for the prayers of the church here. We continue to pray for her, I know that she is facing a difficult time at present. Continue to remember all those who have recently asked our prayers. Thanks also to those who came for the last Monday Night For The Master program until next September. It has been a great year and much has been accomplished for the Lord. Thanks to all who have worked in this program in any way. The youth are planning an ice cream supper tonight after the evening worship service. We hope that all of you will participate. It is always great to get together for fellowship. Thanks to Sandy Singleterry and other ladies for the "Ladies Tea." All the ladies who were in attendance said that they had a great time. A lot of work always goes into such events, and this was no exception. We appreciate Sandy for also coordinating the Luncheon last Sunday. If you are new to the congregation and have not had your picture made for the picture display board in the foyer, please have your picture made today. George Wooden is set up to take your picture. You may go to the designated area today and get you picture made. We appreciate your help with this matter. Also, if you will please go by and check the information posted on the glass in the foyer to see if the directory information is correct, we would appreciate it. We are getting ready to publish a new ledger directory. If you would like, we can print your cell number and e-mail address. Please give us your birthday also if you are new to the congregation here. Thanks for coming today. See you tonight. DAN

PLEASE TURN OFF ALL CELL PHONES

TO KEEP IN OUR PRAYERS

WELCOME VISITORS

A big hearty welcome to those visiting today. Allow us to meet and greet you following the worship service this morning. At the end of the service today you will be given a gift bag from our congregation. "It is a small gift, but it comes from big hearts." Thanks again for coming.

Sandy Singleterry would like to thank everyone who helped with the graduation dinner on Sunday. They were: Fred & Beth Freeman, James Singleterry, Pam Boyette, Martha Oliver, Wendi Barnes, and Marty Nash. All of us at Crockett Rd. thank you all, as these special dinners would not happen without the unselfish service of people like you.

Today, before service or after, we would like to get the pictures of our new members for our picture board. George Wooden is set up in the library to take your picture. Please go there and he will get you in & out as soon as possible.

The Visual Aid Brigade ladies will be meeting every Tuesday at 10 AM, until after VBS on June 24th, to get ready for that day. We have about a month to get ready. Please consider coming to help us out.

ICE CREAM SUPPER
Tonight immediately after evening worship the youth will be sponsoring an ice cream supper. Please bring a gallon of homemade or Blue Bell ice cream. The youth group will be serving us! Plan to attend.
