A big, burly man visited the preacher's home and asked to see the minister's wife, a woman well known for her charitable impulses. "Madam," he said in a broken voice, "I wish to draw your attention to the terrible plight of a poor family in this district. The father is dead, the mother is too ill to work, and the nine children are starving. They are about to be turned into the cold, empty streets unless someone pays their rent, which amounts to $400." "How terrible!" exclaimed the preacher's wife. "May I ask who you are?" The sympathetic visitor applied his handkerchief to his eyes. "I'm the landlord," he sobbed.

Seniors Honored Great Church Fellowship Luncheon

From Dan's desk:

The three graduating seniors at Crockett Rd. were honored at services last Sunday morning and with a luncheon in their honor. We are so happy for them and we are confident that they will meet the challenges that now confront them as they graduate from high school. This is truly a milestone in their lives. Our prayers go with them as they go off to school. A big thank you to Sandy and James Singleterry and the others who helped in the kitchen: Fred & Beth Freeman, Rita Taylor, Pam Boyette, James Crawford, Charles McCullough, Sherron Carder, Lois Duzan and Marty Nash. They always do a wonderful job of preparing for the luncheon. It was a great day. Thanks to those of you who came to Monday Night For The Master last Monday evening. It was a busy last few days. Much was accomplished last Monday night. The electricity went off for some time prior to the meeting. It came back on just before we ate together. This is the last meeting of this program until September. For all of you who have attended and offered your services, we are grateful. Today is Memorial Day. Our nation will gather with family and friends to remember those who have lost their lives in service to the country. We have been blessed here in America as a result of those who have given so much. The young people in the church (some ten) will be heading off to Summer Christian Youth Camp in a couple of weeks. Let's continue to pray for them while they are away. Ben and Keri have been working and planning to make sure that this will be a great experience for them. See you tonight at services.

HANG IN THERE!

Therefore, my beloved brethren, be steadfast, immovable always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that your toil is not in vain in the Lord. (1 Corinthians 15:58)

The above is the last verse of 1 Corinthians 15. It concludes Paul's long discussion of the importance of Jesus' resurrection. In specific, Paul declared Jesus' resurrection is important because His resurrection affirms our resurrection. The indication is this: Paul answered their question about the importance of accepting resurrection as a fact. Paul's affirmed belief in resurrection is at the core of placing faith in Jesus. He said if there is no resurrection, Christianity is a sham without integrity. The reason for Paul's challenge in 1 Corinthians 15:58 to be steadfast, is the reality of resurrection. Little is more devastating than reaching the end of life, realizing that you have wasted life, and realizing your life cannot be rescued. Please note that hardship produced by not placing faith in Jesus' resurrection is NOT a modern problem! It is as old as Christianity! Anti-spiritual people always have said, “Dead is dead! Death is the total end of life! Anticipating resurrection is nothing more than foolishly hoping against reality!” Working for the Lord is just that—work. It is demanding, often challenging work. It can be rightfully defined as toil—just plain hard work. Note also that though it may be hard work, it is not vain work. It is never wasted effort. Why? Resurrection is real! We work for more than the Church's success. We are working for the Lord. May God help us to focus of our Saviour and Lord.
