

Teen News

Thank each of you for helping with "Donuts For Dad" this morning. I know that the fathers and grandfathers really appreciate your kindness. Remember that this Tuesday we will be going to Livingston for the youth Rally. We will leave the bldg at 4 P.M. and be back between 10 and 10:30 P.M. We hope you will want to go along. Our Vacation Bible School will be held this Tuesday morning. We always need help, so if you can come help us, please be here about 8:30 Tuesday morning. Remember that the youth Rally will be held here Tuesday week, June 28th. We need help with the meal that night, so those parents that can help, please see me today. Thanks for being in class and worship today.

BEN

My Dad

He couldn't speak before a crowd
He couldn't teach a class
But when he came to Sunday School
He brought the folks in mass.

He couldn't sing to save his life,
In public couldn't pray;
But always his jalopy was just
Crammed on each Lord's day.

And although he couldn't sing,
Nor teach nor lead in prayer.
He listened well, he had a smile,
And he was always there
With all the others whom he brought
Who lived both far and near.
And God's work prospered for
I had a consecrated dad.

HAPPY FATHER'S DAY

Father's Day is here. We honor fathers today and every day of life. They play a very important and basic role in life, in all society. My very wise grandmother used to say, "Anyone can have a child, but it takes a special man to be a father." I wholeheartedly agree. Being a father is much more than performing a biological function. It is about loving and caring, guiding and sharing. A father is the head of his family. He does this, not out of insecurity, selfishness or pride, but out of the desire to be an obedient servant to God. (Ephesians 5:22) A father offers wise council so that he may lead his children to a path of righteousness. He is slow to anger, yet demands respect. "For I know him, that he will command his children and his household after him, and they shall keep the way of the Lord, to do justice and judgment; ..." Ephesians 6:1-3 (See also Genesis 18:19) A father is strong, reliable and confident. But, a father is also tender, loving and understanding. "Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: ..." Matt. 7:12 (See also Psalms 103:13) A father is a good provider. As long as he is capable, he is willing to labor hard to provide shelter for his family, and food on the table ... "if any would not work neither should he eat"(II Thessalonians 3:10) A father recognizes the importance of making time for those he loves. Little league baseball and dance recitals seem to be his favorite past time. "Train up a child in the way he should go; and when he is old, he will not depart from it." (Proverbs 22:6)

A father is not judged by how much he earns or how many material goods he provides. What does matter to his children is how well he is being a father.

TODAY IS FATHER'S DAY
We are glad you have come.
V.B. S. Starts Tuesday 9 A.M.

From Dan's desk:

Does the third Sunday in June ring a bell with you? Probably not, although it has been celebrated every year for almost a century as Father's Day. We seem to have a day for almost everyone and everything to be honored, so why not fathers? Ironically, the idea for Father's Day all started when a lady heard a Mother's Day sermon and decided that she didn't want all that her dad had done for her to go unrecognized. When you think about Father's Day, what comes to your mind? Can you relate to the lady who was concerned about taking her father for granted? Honoring fathers is important. After all, the Bible commands us to honor them; but, this year, think of Father's Day with a new twist. Take some time to consider all your Heavenly Father has done for you and how you might be taking Him for granted. Today is Father's Day. It is a time to think about your father and express love and gratitude to your father. This morning, I will speak on the subject of "Fatherhood". The Bible has so much to say about fathers and their role in the family. It also speaks of the honor that is due the father. We have a lot of visitors in the audience today and we want you to know that we welcome you and hope that you will return when you can. We are glad you have come today. Remember that Super Tuesday Vacation Bible School will be held this coming Tuesday morning. We will start at 9 A.M. and the event will close at 12:30 P.M. We will serve lunch to the children in attendance. Plan now to invite any children in your neighborhood to attend. It will be a great day. We hope to see you tonight. DAN

WELCOME VISITORS

A big hearty welcome to those visiting today. Allow us to meet and greet you following the worship service this morning. At the end of the service today you will be given a gift bag from our congregation. "It is a small gift, but it comes from big hearts." Thanks again for coming.

ARE YOU RESILIENT?

How many resilient people do you know who have come back after defeat, have risen above inhibiting debilitating handicaps to become great?

1. Insight – wisdom and Understanding.
2. Independence.
3. Relationships – functioning As part of a group.
4. Initiative - self-starting.
5. Creativity.
6. Humor.
7. Morality.

I used to think resilience meant ability to cope, patience to keep on and not give up, the ability to function even if parts of the system were dysfunctional or inadequate. It is all those things and more, by extension. The dictionary says it is elasticity: ability to be stretched out of shape and then return to proper shape. Even Christians stumble and fall at times. But the same obedient penitent faith that straightened them out in the first place can put them back in shape and keep them there. God has given us all the spiritual resources we need to get in shape and stay in shape – to survive, conquer, and overcome everything.

We must become resilient
