

Teen News

Thanks to all of you who stayed for the pizza and devotional last Sunday night. We all had a good time. I want to thank those who are helping with Bible Hour this year. We have a lot of young children who are coming and who will be teens one of these days. We want to remind you about the Fall Fest that will be held at the home of Clint and Jonna Satterwhite on Saturday night, Oct. 31st. We hope you will participate. Remember that we are having a luncheon after worship this morning. We will not having a devotional tonight because of the other activities that are taking place.

Friendships that Endure

Twenty Chinese couples tied the knot in a mass wedding on the Great Wall of China, according to an official Chinese newspaper. The couples said they chose the site in hopes that their marriages would be like the Great Wall – able to withstand the winds and rains.

That Chinese ceremony contrasts with another wedding that took place in the aisle of a convenience store. The fun-loving couple said they thought it would be romantic to be married in the place where they met.

Although lasting relationships need the kind of humor and creativity exhibited by the convenience-store wedding, marriages also need the Great Wall. And what is true of marriage is also true of friendships. A faithful companion is always there during times of trouble and adversity (Prov. 17:17). Fair-weather friends aren't friends at all.

God is our ultimate Friend and Companion, and He will never abandon us. And because we have been made to bear His likeness, we should be to others the kind of friend who stays by their side when the going gets rough.- Martin Ham

Fellowship Luncheon Today following the morning worship Service.

From Dan's desk:

We welcome all of our visitors from the R.V. Rally and from other places as well. We are glad you have come to worship with us today. We hope you enjoy your time with us. Following the worship service this morning, we will have lunch together in the Activity Building. Plan to stay. There is plenty of food. We have made preparations and we would love to visit with you for a while. All those who went to the R.V. Rally last Friday night really enjoyed the time with those who were in attendance. This is always a special time and thanks to all who made the effort to join us. A big thank you to those who came last week to clean up the roster area following the reconstruction that took place. All we have heard is positive comments about the change. A big thank you to Dennis Homann and Bryan Homann for their excellent work on the project. It really looks nice. It is a change we have been wanting to make for several years. Someone donated the money for this project and we are grateful for their generosity. We are making plans for the Annual Fall Fest to be held at the home of Clint and Jonna Satterwhite two weeks from last night. Children are encourage to wear their costumes. It will be a great evening. Please sign up on the bulletin board, if you are planning to be present. Also sign your name if you will host a booth. Thanks again for being here this morning. We really appreciate your presence and we will look forward to your return tonight at 6 P.M. for the evening worship service. DAN

WELCOME VISITORS

A big hearty welcome to those visiting today. Allow us to meet and greet you following the worship service this morning. At the end of the service today you will be given a gift bag from our congregation. "It is a small gift, but it comes from big hearts." Thanks again for coming.

"You'll Get Used To It"

"Welcome to this year's seminar for volunteer church leaders. Our discussion this hour will center on 'Apathy in the Church and How to Deal with It.'"

It is easy to get used to indifference. That's why we become apathetic to it. I read of a newly hired young preacher standing at the window of his study, crying. He was looking out at a scene of busy people scurrying here and there. He saw dope peddlers; prostitutes; junkies, panhandlers, and thieves. One of the members came near, gently placed a hand on his shoulder and said, "Don't worry. After you've been here a while, you'll get used to it." Responded the minister, "Yes, I know. That's why I am crying." May we never get used to it.
