Good morning!! It's good to see you all today. I hope you have a great week this week. I would like to say thanks to Ms. Millie for opening her home up for the youth devo last Sunday. We all (13) had so much fun! Thank you!! Tonight's devo will be here in the small fellowship hall. See you tonight!!! Ben

Our fall fest will be held at the home of Clint and Jonna Satterwhite this Saturday evening, Oct. 25th, at 5:00 PM. We will have booths, good food, devotional. If you are riding the bus, it will leave the church at 4:30 PM. If you would like to  Fall Festival man a booth, please sign the sign up sheet. Some suggestions are given, but feel free to suggest others. Mark your calendar for a wonderful time!

"WE'RE ALL IN THIS TOGETHER"

Can you be counted on to defend the truth against every foe? Too many people will defend the gospel if someone they do not like is perverting it. But, if one of their friends perverts God's word, they tend to be very tolerant, or they will make excuses for them. When truth is at stake, we should have no friends except God. Do you find yourself wetting a finger and sticking it in the air to see which way the wind is blowing before you take a stand on a controversial issue? The Bible says stand (Ephesians 6:13-14; Jude 3)! Can God count on you to take an active role in the work and worship of the local congregation? God has not placed the responsibility for building up the local congregation on the shoulders of only one person. Can God count on you to be uncompromising in the fight against sin, shame, and immorality? When people in the work place laugh at homosexuality, unscriptural multiple marriages, the use of alcohol and drugs among the nation's youth, teen pregnancy out of wedlock, do you go with the flow or do you plead God's case (1 Corinthians 6:9-10; Galatians 5:9-21)? If God can count on you, prove it!

"GOD'S PROTECTIVE WINGS"

A story in National Geographic several years ago gives us a beautiful and penetrating picture of God's protective wings covering His children. After a forest fire in Yellowstone National Park, forest rangers began their trek up a mountain to assess the inferno's damage. One ranger found a bird literally petrified in ashes, perched statuesquely on the ground at the base of a tree. Somewhat sickened by the eerie sight, the ranger reached out to knock the bird over with a stick. As he gently struck it, three tiny chicks scurried from under their dead mother's wings. The loving mother, keenly aware of impending disaster, had carried her offspring to the base of the tree and had gathered them under her wings, instinctively knowing that the toxic smoke would rise. She could have flown to safety, but she refused to abandon her babies. When the blaze reached her, the heat had scorched her small body, but the mother had remained steadfast because she had been willing to die, those under the cover of her wings had lived. The Psalmist beautifully illustrates God's protective love and care for each of us in Psalm 91:4 (NIV) when he says, "He will cover you with His feathers, and under His wings you will find refuge". As His children, let's remember the One who truly loves us (Romans 5:5-10), and then be different from the masses of the world because of that love (Romans 12:1-2; 2 Corinthians 6:14-18).

Two more baptized into Christ and one responds for prayer.

From Dan's desk:

We want to welcome each of you today to our worship services. If you are visiting with us we want you to know how much we appreciate your presence this morning. It is great to have the people from the R.V. Rally and to have Ray Franks speak to us this morning. We also want to welcome the Sojourners from Marshall who are there for their annual assembly. We welcome all others who may be visiting with us also. Thanks for coming. Last week, EMMA RICARD was baptized into Christ. Ben had been studying with her and she made that commitment on Wednesday just before Bible Class. Also on Sunday morning, SYLVIA GURGANUS responded to the invitation to be baptized. She had been baptized at an early age and wanted to make sure of her baptism. We commend her for taking this step to draw closer to God. Also Sunday evening, ANN SPARKS responded for the prayers of the church here. One of the great blessings afforded us as Children of God is the avenue of prayer. We appreciate Ann and know the struggle she has been facing with depression. We continue to pray for her. Those who have never experienced such a problem, would find it difficult to understand. May God help us to continue to encourage one another and do what we can to help those who have needs. We will have our luncheon in the activity building following the worship service today. We hope that each of you will plan to stay for the meal and fellowship. It will be great. Remember our worship service tonight at 6 P.M. We will look forward to seeing you here. DAN

THE LOUISIANA-TEXAS
R.V. RALLY

Thanks to all of you who were in attendance at the R.V. Rally this year. It was a great experience and everyone enjoyed the fellowship, the good meals, and the speakers who were on hand to deliver the messages. Thanks to Ray and Donna Franks for coordinating this effort each year. Much good comes from our fellowship and association together. Ray Franks will be our guest speaker for the auditorium class today. All the adult classes will meet together for this special lesson on the subject, "GIVE ME LIBERTY OR GIVE ME DEATH". It is good to have him and Donna with us today.
