

Teen News

I hope you all had a great weekend! I want to thank each of you for making it to Bible Class this morning. Last Wednesday we had a great class and I appreciate those of you who are participating. I want to encourage you all to be as active as you can in the church. When we meet together each week we learn more about each other and the Lord. Please invite your friends to church with you sometime. Thanks for being here this morning. We will have a DEVO tonight.

The Simplest Advertising

When John Grisham wrote a book called A Time To Kill, it sold just five thousand copies in hard cover. It wasn't advertised...ever made a list or was reviewed by anybody. Then he wrote The Firm, and it wasn't advertised either. It was hardly reviewed, and the reviews it got weren't very good. But people read it and liked it and told other people they liked it and The Firm sold seven million copies. John Grisham has written several other books, and over the years his books have been on the number 1 best seller list. His books were successful not because of advertising, not because of the publisher's clever marketing plan, but because somebody liked the book. I guess a lot of people liked the book and told other people, until millions of these books have been sold. Shouldn't we be telling others about the book Divine, the Bible. DAN

THANK YOU

A big thank you to Cheryl Ellis for having the ladies Bible class in her home last week. We had 31 ladies present and everyone really enjoyed the luncheon. It was a good day and a memorable one indeed.

THANKS FROM ALL OF US

Thanks to Clint and Jonna Satterwhite for having the church family at their home for the annual Fall Fest yesterday. It was a great day. Thanks to all who helped provide food and the games. Everyone had a wonderful time. It is times like these that we all draw closer together in love. Thanks again Clint and Jonna. We are already looking forward to next year.

Consecration

A wise teacher was once trying to explain to a physician the meaning and importance of consecration to God. The physician seemed incapable of understanding it. Finally the teacher said, "Suppose a person with a certain fatal disease comes to you. You have the power and knowledge to save this person. You have just the right remedy. You offer the patient the one prescription that will make him whole again. The patient, however, replies, 'I will follow your directions when I find them to be traditionally true and when they make some sense to me, but if they don't, I'll rely on my own judgment.' What would you do?"

"Do!" was the indignant reply, "I would refuse to accept such a patient. I could do nothing for such a person unless that person put their entire case into my hands and obeyed my directions implicitly."

"Then faith in you as the doctor and obedience to your orders would be absolutely essential to a patient who wants to be cured?" "Absolutely!" "And that dear doctor," replied the teacher, "is consecration." To obey God implicitly and follow Him is the one and only way to find a cure for sin. Some are willing to take part of what God requires for salvation, but not all. Jesus tells us, "Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God (Matt. 4:4)" ADAPTED

Fall Fest, Fellowship Luncheon,
Ladies luncheon and R.V. Rally provided fellowship for all.

From Dan's desk:

October is always a busy month for the church here. The R.V. Rally last week was great. Numerous visitors came to the worship services last Sunday. It was good to hear Ray Franks speak. He did a good job. We appreciate his efforts and glad that Ray is doing better health wise. The fellowship luncheon was wonderful. It was good to hear "His Harmony" sing for those in attendance. They did a good job as usual. Thank you to Sandy Singleterry for coordinating the luncheon and Fred & Beth Freeman, Rita Taylor, Nancy Mooney, Lois Duzan, & Pam Boyette for their help. Thanks to Cheryl Ellis for hosting the ladies in her home last Tuesday. We appreciate your kindness. Thanks also to the Satterwhite's for making provisions for the "Fall Fest" this year. Thanks to Charles McCullough for driving the church bus to the R.V. Rally and to the Satterwhite home last Saturday. Indeed it has been a busy month as you can see. More to come. There are a number of things yet planned including "Monday Night For The Master" tomorrow night at 6:15 P.M. We hope you can be there. The meal will start at 6:15 and then we will begin the work session at 7 P.M. We always appreciate all of you who come to help out. So many in the congregation here give of their time and effort to do what it takes to get the job done. This is always a great time of fellowship. It is through such times that we draw closer together. We appreciate you being here this morning and we hope to see you tonight.

PLEASE TURN OFF ALL CELL PHONES

TO KEEP IN OUR PRAYERS

LINDA CHEAIRS is in ETMC hospital in Tyler. She is recovering from additional surgery.

LORETTA YOUNG had surgery on Thursday. She is recovering.

GWYETTE STURGESS will have a heart procedure tomorrow.

PAUL PEARSON has been diagnosed with cancer and has asked for prayer.

DAVID BOLT brother in law of Harold and Bobbie Johnson, is in the hospital in Tyler with pancreatitis. JIMMY OSMOND, their son-in-law, has learned that he has a recurrence of cancer.

All others are doing better.

TRUNK & TREAT

This Wednesday night immediately after our worship service we will have Trunk & Treat in the parking lot for our children.

Please plan to bring wrapped candy and open your trunks to dispense candy to all our little ones. Kids wear your costumes!

WELCOME VISITORS

A big hearty welcome to those visiting today. Allow us to meet and greet you following the worship service this morning. At the end of the service today you will be given a gift bag from our congregation. "It is a small gift, but it comes from big hearts." Thanks again for coming.

MONDAY NIGHT FOR THE MASTER

We encourage all of you to attend
