

Teen News

Thank all of you for being present for Bible class this morning and worship. It is hard to believe that the holidays are coming up so fast. I wanted to remind all of you that we will be hosting the annual "Single and Single Again" luncheon in the activity building next Sunday. The widows, widowers and singles really appreciate us doing this for them. Please plan to be here and help us. Remember also that next week the regular Wednesday night service will be held on Tuesday night. We will have a devotional in the church auditorium with a powerpoint presentation. Don't forget

WIDOW-WIDOWER- SINGLES LUNCHEON

The Youth group will again be hosting a Thanksgiving Luncheon in honor of the Widows, Widowers and Single adults on Sunday, November 19th, immediately after morning worship services. If you will be attending, please sign the sign up sheet on the bulletin board across from the office today, so adequate plans can be made.

No matter how good or bad
you think life is, wake up each day and be - - - thankful for life.

Someone somewhere else is fighting to survive.

Rejoice always,
Pray without ceasing,
In everything Give Thanks:
For this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

THANK YOU DEAR LORD

When we are truly thankful and grateful to God for all He has done and continues to do for us, our prayers become acceptable to God. I don't know of any one who wants to hear people whine all the time? I've learned that you can't whine and give thanks in the same breath. Self-pity and thankfulness don't mix any better than oil and water. In fact, mixing thanks with prayer somehow changes it. When we remember what God has done for us in the past and think about who he is in the present -- and express that in thankfulness -- our prayers become more gentle, more trusting somehow. Thankful prayers are offered with faith. And faith is an essential ingredient for prayers that God chooses to answer. We remember the Pilgrims on Thanksgiving Day, not so much for their turkey dinner, but for the sheer faith that inspired them to give thanks in a year that saw nearly half their number die of sickness. Yet they prayed with thanksgiving. When your annual day of feasting is over, you may bemoan your extra helpings of dressing, mashed potatoes, and pumpkin pie. But if you can hang on to the "thanks" part of Thanksgiving, you'll be a different person. Because when you learn to talk to God about your needs -- mixed with a healthy dose of heartfelt thanks then are prayers are acceptable to our Father.

We Welcome One, Placing membership into our fellowship.

From Dan's desk:

Thank each of you for being present today for Bible Class and Worship. It is always a joyous occasion when God's Children can gather and worship God in the spirit of holiness. We welcome ANGELA BIRDOW into our fellowship. She is the daughter of Annie Lee Birdow and comes to us from the Lord's Church in Houston. She expressed her desire to be identified as a member of the Crockett Rd. congregation and we rejoice in her making that decision. We have several upcoming events that will be taking place along with the holidays that are rapidly approaching. Remember the widow, widower and single luncheon that is being hosted by the youth. Ben and Keri and the youth are making plans for a big day one week from today. Please sign your name to the list on the bulletin board, if you are planning to attend. Remember to bring your "stock pot" food donations to the building also. This a good work and John and Ann Mottern and others in the church are doing a fantastic job of feeding the hungry. The Health Fair will take place at our building this coming Thursday. All of this is free. There will be health screenings, giveaways, free lunch, games and other surprises. Plan to attend. This is not only for the church here, but for the community. It will be a great day. Thanks to Alison Rader, KINDRED and OUTREACH HEALTH CARE and associates who are providing this event. Remember the week of Thanksgiving we will again meet on Tuesday night instead of Wednesday night. Mark the date Nov. 21st. All will meet in the church auditorium. See you tonight. DAN
