SOME THINGS GOD MIGHT ASK

God won't ask what you did to help yourself... but He might ask what you did to help others.

God won't ask how many friends you had... but He might ask how many people to whom you were a friend.

God won't ask what you did to protect your rights... but He might ask what you did to protect the rights of others.

God won't ask in what neighborhood you lived... but He might ask how you treated your neighbors.

God won't ask about the color of your skin... but He might ask about the content of your character.

God won't ask how many times your deeds matched your words... but He might ask how many times they didn't.

God won't ask if His Son loved you... but He might ask if you loved His Son.

Steve Camp to be appointed an additional Elder

Remember that we will resume with “Monday Night For The Master”, tomorrow night after the long hiatus. There is much to do, and we would appreciate each of you coming to be with us. The month of September is almost over for the year 2026. The months continue to fly by. Since the beginning of the year, we have had thirteen deaths. We have missed them and continue to pray for their families. We continue to have several who have placed membership or those who have been baptized this year. For this we are truly thankful. God continues to bless our congregation with additional numerical and spiritual growth. As was announced last week, STEVE CAMP has been asked to serve as an additional Elder here. Any objections must be signed and turned in by next Sunday Oct. 4th. He will be a great Elder. Make an effort to be here tonight at 6 P.M. We passed out a list of activities planned for the church here and we ask that you go back and try as best to arrange your schedule to be with us, in as many of these events as possible. Thanks for coming today. We are glad you are here. See you tonight. DAN

TO KEEP IN OUR PRAYERS

SCOTT ROBERSON is scheduled for gall bladder surgery this Tuesday in Tyler.

SCOTT DELK is undergoing tests. He is Mike Whitley's brother-in-law.

ANN HOLLAND has been moved to Windemere assisted living.

ED JORGENSEN, husband of Shelah Jorgenson, is undergoing tests.

LIZ MISSILDINE, mother of Dale Waldon, has breast cancer.

“DECISIONS”

Decisions about repentance and obedience are always difficult. In many cases they turn out to be quite painfully difficult. But there is no other cure for what ails us. And if turning away from our sins is something we're not willing to do, for whatever reason, then it's not likely that God will find a welcome reception in our hearts.

On the other hand, if we've caught any glimpse of the joy that fellowship with God would bring to us, then no price will be too great to pay to learn that love.

We'll not even balk at the requirement of repentance. Our hearts and our minds will be focused on Him. We will be ready to receive whatever He has for us.

“HOW OPEN ARE YOU WITH GOD?”

Being Truly Open to God Means: Not Only That We Are Willing To Accept The Truth About Him, But That We Are Eager To Welcome Him Into Our Hearts and Lives. The Thessalonians to whom Paul had preached the gospel were not gullible, but there is no denying that they were favorably disposed toward the possibility that what they had heard might be the truth. And when they were shown sufficient evidence to convince them that the message was indeed true, they did not hesitate to respond to it obediently. When you received the word of God which you heard from us,” Paul wrote, “you welcomed it not as the word of men, but as it is in truth, the word of God.”

The thing that often makes us less than receptive to God, of course, is the fact that He calls upon us to “put off the old” and “put on the new” (Ephesians 4:20-24). We cannot have God without turning away from the things that separate us from God. DAN
