Thanks to everyone who stayed for the meeting last Sunday morning. If you were unable to attend, please let me know so I can get you a event form to fill out for me. I need the filled out forms by next Sunday. Also, if you are able to coach an event let me know, so I can get a list of all the coaches.

We are looking at going to Tyler to play paintball one Saturday as a LTC kick off day. If you are interested in going, there will be a sign up list on the teen board.

Plans have changed and the Visual Aid Brigade will also meet this Tuesday.

“SOULS TO WIN IN ‘10”

From Dan's desk:

The New Year is off and running and there is much to do in coming days, weeks and months. We believe that this year will prove to be one of our best in terms of souls being won for the Lord. We had some 21 baptized into Christ during the year 2009 and that is great, but we believe that with God's help and the energy and efforts of faithful Christians more will obey the gospel. It was good to see so many back last Lord's Day who had been away for the holidays and those who had been ill. It is always nice to see family members doing better. Today the Elders and Deacons will conduct the morning worship service. This is somewhat traditional and we believe it to be a good tradition. We want to say thank you for your support of our efforts to lead the congregation here. You are to be commended for your love and commitment to God's work. May God bless us in the coming year that much will be done for His cause. See you tonight.

PLEASE TURN OFF ALL CELL PHONES OR PUT THEM ON VIBRATE.

COMING SOON

On Saturday, January 23rd, we will be hosting the "Give Me The Bible" Banquet & Conference. The theme this year will be "Souls to Win in 2010".

We will have 2 speakers on the program and Christian Products from Dallas will be here again with a large display of Christian books and cards. It will begin at 9 AM and go to 2 PM. Please sign the sign up sheet, if you will be attending. The cost of the lunch will be $6.00. We would like to have a good representation of those from our congregation.
