

The Month of June filled with numerous activities.
Don't miss out.
One Responds For Prayer.

From Dan's desk:

Last Sunday morning, SHANNON VASQUEZ responded to the invitation asking for the prayers of the church. We commend her and continue to pray for her and her family. The month of June is planned with numerous activities for the church in mind. We will again, be hosting the area wide youth series on Tuesday evening June 23rd. Paul Cartwright will be our guest speaker that night. We look forward to him coming along with young people from all over the East Texas area. We are in need of those who will prepare cookies. If you can help, there is a sign up list on the bulletin board. We need your help. We will also have the annual watermelon supper on June (Sunday night) 28th after services. The watermelons are always provided and you will enjoy this event. Please plan to attend. The Summer Ladies Class will meet on Tuesday June 9th here at the building and Cheryl Ellis will be teaching. The "Secret Sisters" will have the revealing of their identity this afternoon at 2 P.M. On Wednesday June 10th the young men will conduct the service in the chapel. Please come and support and encourage these young men. I will be preaching at the Shady Grove Church of Christ tonight at their evening service. Thanks for being here this morning. DAN

THANKS

To buddy Ray for speaking last Wednesday night. He did a good job and we appreciate his efforts. Thank all of you for coming.

At Sunday School they were teaching how God created everything, including human beings. Little Johnny seemed especially intent when they told him how Eve was created out of one of Adam's ribs.

Later in the week, his mother noticed him lying down as though he were ill, and she said, 'Johnny, what is the matter?' Little Johnny responded, 'I have pain in my side. I think I'm going to have a wife.'

TOWER OF BABEL COMPLEX

Have you ever noticed how many people have "The Tower of Babel Complex?" Remember the tower of Babel? These people said, "Let us build us a city and a tower, whose top may reach unto heaven; and let us make us a name" (Genesis 11:4). Evidently they thought, "the bigger the better" or, the way to be really somebody is to do big things in big ways. Many people are of that same disposition. They are not anybody, in their estimation, unless they can "see their name up in lights," unless they have "the most" of whatever it is. Thus, the almost insatiable desire to "get to the top" — wherever that is. In direct opposition to this, have you ever noticed how, according to the teaching of Jesus, greatness is not necessarily in doing the "big" things, but rather in the small things; and with Him and His people, the way up is the way down. This is just one of the many ways in which the kingdom of Christ is "not of this world," that is, its standard of greatness is not the same as the world's standard. DAN

Teen News

Good morning and welcome to services! We are so glad you are here. Our first SYS stop at Bullard was great. We enjoyed a great lesson, singing and fellowship and are looking forward to this week's SYS at North Tyler Iglesia de Cristo. We will plan to leave at 5:15 from the church building. We had a good time on Friday night with our (half) Lock-In. Thanks to all who helped make it a success!

We are looking forward to our car wash this Saturday from 9-12. Come ready to work and have a great time together.

Why do Brides Wear White?

Attending a wedding for the first time, a little girl whispered to her mother, "Why is the bride dressed in white?"

The mother replied, 'Because white is the color of happiness, and today is the happiest day of her life.'

The child thought about this for a moment then said, "So why is the groom wearing black?"

SYMPATHY our sympathy is extended to the family of Don Weisinger who passed away last week. He was known by many in the church here.

ARE YOU REALLY MY FRIEND?

If you are my friend, if you are concerned about my soul, give me the truth. Don't flatter me. Don't praise my virtues while remaining silent about my vices. Don't fear that the truth will offend me. Don't treasure our friendship, our friendly relations, above my salvation. Don't think that by ignoring my sins you can help. Don't think that being blind to my sins will prove yourself charitable. However I may react, whatever may be my attitude toward you after you have done it, give me the truth! For the truth, and only the truth, can make men free from the shackles of sin, strengthen me in the pathway of righteousness, and lead me to the joys of heaven. If I'm wavering, weak, lukewarm, indifferent, neglectful; if I've been overtaken in a trespass, if I've been drawn into the pleasures of the world; if I've left my first love; if I've been led astray by error; or if I've done none of these, but need to grow in knowledge and be edified, give me the truth! You can help me go to heaven by giving me your love. People need people. I can't go to heaven alone. I need you and you need me. "Two are better than one because they have a good return for their labor. For if either of them falls, the one will lift up his companion. But woe to the one who falls when there is not another to lift him up. Furthermore, if two lie down together they keep warm, but how can one be warm alone? And if one can overpower him who is alone, two can resist him. A cord of three strands is not quickly torn apart" (Ecclesiastes 4:9-12). "For you, brethren, have been called to liberty; only do not use liberty as an opportunity for the flesh, but through love serve one another. For all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this: 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself'" (Galatians 5:13-14). God gave us to one another to help us get to heaven. Let's not only use the great resource God has given us, but be the resource God intended for us to be.
