

Two responses last Sunday.
One for Prayer and one for baptism.

From Dan's desk:

Welcome to our worship services this morning. It is great to have you in services. If you are visiting with us, please stay around for a few minutes and allow us to get to know you. You will always find a warm welcome here at Crockett Rd. We rejoice in the coming of ETHAN CLARK last Sunday morning asking for the prayers of the church. He is a fine young man and desires to live closer to the Lord. He is an encouragement to us all. On Sunday afternoon, Ben Rhone baptized his niece, EMMA URIAS, into Christ. She lives in Las Vegas and is here visiting. Please remember that the church youth here will host the Annual Youth Rally in the summer series. This will take place this Tuesday night at 7 P.M. Several of you have signed up to bring cookies and we appreciate your efforts. The Young people from all over East Texas will be here. You (adults) are invited to attend as well. It is great that young people are still interested in matters that are spiritual. We commend them highly. The rain has been nice, and we must give God the glory for this blessing in the month of June. See you tonight.

"PREACH THE GOSPEL TIRELESLY"

"Who has believed our report? And to whom has the arm of the Lord been revealed?" (Isa. 53:1) Mark opens up the Gospel record, "The beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God" (Mark 1:1). We have the greatest message (report; doctrine; news; tidings) ever revealed to proclaim. We have glad tidings of good things (Isa. 52:7; Rom. 10:15). We have the Gospel of Jesus Christ and His kingdom, the church (cf. 1 Cor. 15:1-8; Matt. 4:23, 16:18-19). Preach! Proclaim! How shall they hear without a preacher (Rom. 10:14)? What if they do not believe our report? Some will not (Rom. 10:16; Acts 28:24). Jesus faced the same but kept preaching John 12:37-38. In fact, the very words of Jesus will judge us all (John 12:48) so woe unto us if we do not preach the Gospel (1 Cor. 9:16). Preach! Declare! God chose preaching to save those that believe (obey). He placed saving power in the Gospel. Let us get that beautiful Gospel message out to the lost and dead in sin (cf. 1 Cor. 1:21; Rom. 1:16-17). Preach always !!! DAN

"PUT JESUS FIRST"

"But seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added to you." (Matt 6:33)

The above passage is either true or false. Since Jesus, who is the Way, the Truth, and the Life said it, and He spoke by authority from His Heavenly Father who cannot lie, we believe it to be true (Jn. 14:6, 12:49; Tt. 1:2). When Christ said, "seek" He was not asking, He was commanding. Since God gave Christ all authority in heaven and on earth, we must obey Him to be right (Mt. 28:18). Jesus is commanding us to prioritize the kingdom of God and His righteousness. The nations of the world (cf. Lk. 12:30) were seeking basic physical necessities (food, drink, and clothing) which the Father knows we all have need of (Mt. 6:25-32). To seek only those physical things, without prioritizing and seeking the spiritual, is the main reason anyone is worldly, fleshly, or carnal in their thinking. Such thinking causes problems including envy, strife, and division (1 Cor. 3:1-3). Jesus is denied more in action, or the lack thereof, than in speech. Such is seen in Matthew 25 with the parable of the ten virgins, parable of the talents, and the sheep and the goats. Matthew 25 concludes with the final location of the inactive goats, everlasting punishment, and the active sheep, eternal life (Mt. 25:46). Both locations are everlasting or eternal. Both locations are real. Only one, Heaven, is available for those who seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness. Everyone else will find themselves forever tormented with what could have been. Speaking of priorities, "You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind" (Mt. 22:37) DAN

"THREE TEMPTATIONS USED BY SATAN"

These three categories of temptation are the very methods Satan used against Jesus as he tempted the Lord for forty days in the wilderness. (Matt. 4:1-11; Luke 4:1-12) The "lust of the flesh" is any and every physical desire, passion, or pleasure that is contrary to God's moral laws. Even things within themselves that are not sinful, become so when our desire for them is not controlled and kept in proper prospective and priority. Our "love" or loyalty is not to be for the physical things of earth but for the spiritual things of heaven. (Matt. 6:19-21; 16:26) The "lust of the eyes" centers around what Jesus called "the lamp of the body". It is with our eyes that our mind consumes either light or darkness. (Luke 11:34-36) The Lord also taught us that with the eyes we can commit sin just as if we'd done the physical act itself. (Matt. 5:27:30) Finally, the "pride of life" pertains to the basic impulse we have for boastful status and self-centered desire. Pride and arrogance are characteristics despised by God and are to be absent from the Christian's life. (Prov. 6:17; 21:4; James 4:6) DAN
