

GIVE ME THE BIBLE T.V.
Studio nearing completion.
Thanks for coming today.

From Dan's desk:

The Summer heat is upon us. As someone said, "If you think it is hot here". We have been blessed with the rains that have taken place over the last few weeks. The weather is something we as humans cannot amend or change. God knows what we need before we ask. Paul the Apostle wrote, "In everything give thanks, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you". We are to be thankful IN ALL THINGS, not necessarily FOR all things. Construction is coming along with the GMTB studio. We hope to have it complete before long. We appreciate your forbearance over the last few weeks. Completion is nearing. The "Give Me The Bible" television program is reaching so many people with the Gospel of Jesus. We are grateful for the cooperative spirit among Churches Of Christ in the East Texas area as well as Arkansas and Louisiana. It takes a lot of folks working together to make this happen. Thank you for coming today and if you are visiting, do come again. The evening service tonight will take place at 6 P.M. Join Us.

THE SUMMER LADIES CLASS

The Summer Ladies Bible Class taught by Cheryl Ellis will meet this Tuesday July 21st. The ladies are asked to bring their favorite snack food and stay following the class that morning.

Summer youth series

The Young people will be going to Whitehouse, Texas for the next Summer Youth Series. Pray for them as they travel.

"I took an inventory. The church fridge consists of only seven jars of expired mayonnaise."

UNDER CONSTRUCTION

We are converting the first room on the left going down the hallway into a studio for "Give Me The Bible." We are unable to tape the program in Ft. Worth after August and so we moved it to the church here. We appreciate your cooperation while we are under construction.

Teen News

I hope everyone is having a wonderful Sunday! Alison and I are out of town this week, but are looking forward to being back with everyone soon and hope some of our group will attend SYS in Whitehouse on Tuesday. We had a wonderful week of Lamp Camp this past week. We really appreciate everyone who has a hand in decorating, working in the kitchen and helping with crafts and instruction. We have the best youth and parents around! We have a few more weeks until most everyone starts back to school, but are looking forward to some great fellowship in the meantime. Hope everyone has a great week!!

God Is Good, All the Time—All the Time God Is Good

I am not sure the first time I heard the saying, “God is good all the time and all the time God is good.” Recently, I have been thinking about these words, and they have become even more meaningful to me. May I share with you some of the ways I have been using this phrase and how it has helped me?

God Is Faithful, All the Time—All the Time, God Is Faithful

Throughout the Bible, there is the assurance that we can trust every promise, every assurance and every word God has said. For example, when God promised to protect us from being tempted above that which we are able to bear and then promised to provide a way of escape in every temptation, it is tied to the words, “God is faithful” (1 Cor. 10:13). You can trust God because it is impossible for Him to lie (Tit. 1:2). You can always trust God. I am thankful that we serve a Father who loves us dearly. May we go and shower that love on others in our world.

Faith Cometh By Hearing

According to the Bible, “faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.” (Romans 10:17). Many who misunderstand faith believe it is merely a mental acknowledgment of one’s belief in Jesus as the Son of God. But God’s Word shows that faith is believing and heeding the information God has revealed. Because you believe this information, you are then inclined to follow the instructions that it presents. Hebrews chapter 11 describes various actions individuals took by faith. When we examine these actions closely, we see that they were following instructions that were provided to them. They received information and then adhered to the instructions that came from it. As a result, they accomplished these acts by faith. For instance, by faith, Moses forsook Egypt; he was instructed to do so. By faith, he kept the Passover, which he was also told to do. By faith, the Israelites passed through the Red Sea, following instructions they had received. And by faith, the walls of Jericho fell down, as they were told. None of these actions accomplished by faith would have resulted in the blessings they received if they had not heeded God’s instructions. God provided them with information that included instructions to be followed.

By faith they obeyed. Adapted
