Welcome to our services today.
Glad you are here.
Promotion In Bible Class.

From Dan's desk:

Last Sunday was a wonderful day. DANIEL HARBOUR, husband of Bridgett Harbour, placed membership with the church here. He was baptized several years ago and we are so happy that he made that decision. He is a fine person. He is a wonderful husband and father to his children. We welcome him into our midst. Our sympathy is extended to Doug Rader and family in the death of his mom, Mary Ann Colling. Mary Ann was one of the few members that remained when Audrey and I moved to Palestine. She was a sweet, kind, and loving individual. She will be missed by those who knew her. Today is promotion in Bible class. Children are to move up to their new class. We appreciate those who teach in our Education program. They always do a great job. If you are not attending Bible Class, let us encourage you to do so. You are missing a wonderful blessing by not attending. Thanks for coming today and hope to see you at 6 P.M. Remember that the youth are hosting a Spaghetti Supper after the evening service. Plan to stay and show your support for the youth. They do a great job and always need encouragement. DAN

ENCOURAGEMENT IS NEEDED

Encouragement is so often needed by all of us. If we can encourage others to live for Christ, we are doing tremendous work in the kingdom. If we tell others they are representing Christ as well, it will motivate them to keep doing it. When it comes to encouragement, no task is too small or ordinary. Most of the time people appreciate it the most when the little things are noticed. As believers, it is our duty to encourage one another, it is our duty to make sure our brothers and sisters are on the right track, it is our duty to love one another as we love our selves. Reinforcing each other can do no harm, and if we can all abound in doing so, there's no telling what heights we may achieve and what kind of example the world would see in ourselves. Lift each other up! Every day!! Think of someone you can encourage today. Just a simple call or text can brighten their day and challenge them to encourage someone else. DAN
